My Goals

- To practice writing the small letters in order
- To learn to finish stories
- To look at pictures and think what makes someone glad
- To look at pictures and think what is wise to do or say
- To learn what makes those who are over me glad

Proverbs 15:20

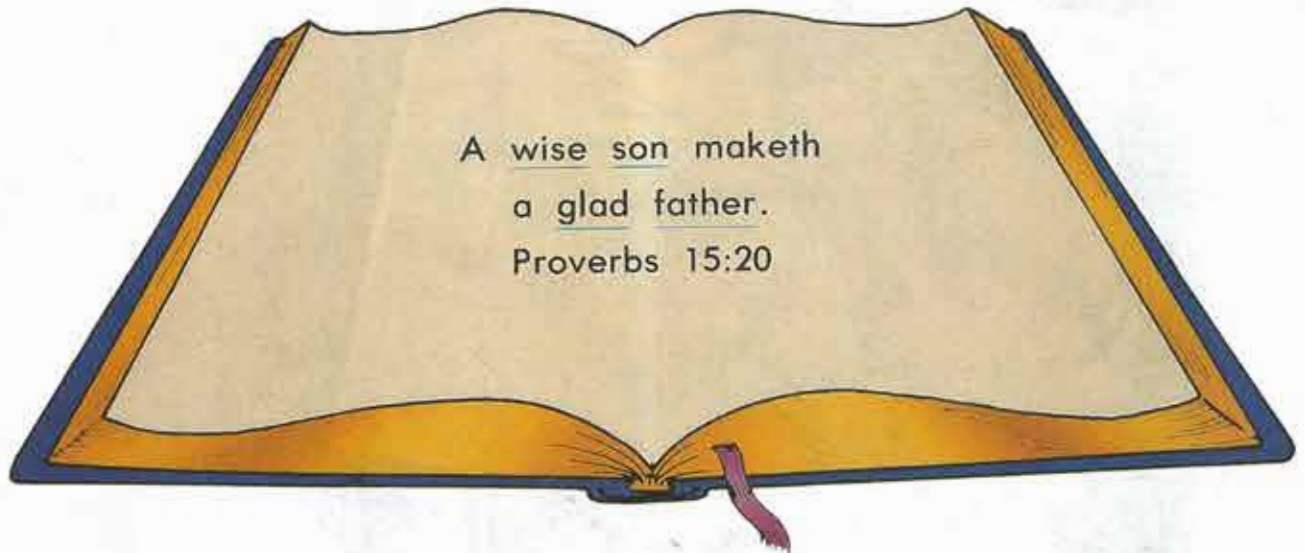

"Be wise my son," the Scriptures say.

"Your father's heart make glad today."

So learn these words and live each day

The Proverbs fifteen twenty way.

The Broken Fence

"Grandpa, Grandpa, please come quickly!" called Ace. "The fence is down, and the cows might get out!"

"You are right, Ace. Show me where the fence is broken," said his grandpa.

Ace and Grandpa walked quickly to the barnyard. Sure enough, the fence was down. Grandpa bent down and picked up the loose board.

"I am going to need a hammer, Ace. I will have to go back and get one," said Grandpa.

"I can get it for you, Grandpa. I know where it is," said Ace. "May I go?"

"Yes, Ace. I will wait here," said Grandpa.

In just a short time, Ace was back with the hammer. He held the board in place as Grandpa pounded the nails. The fence was soon fixed as good as new.

"Ace," said Grandpa, "you are such a willing helper. You were wise to come and tell me about the fence, and you were quick to help me fix it. You make me a glad grandpa!"

Here is the third line of the song from page 1. Learn the words.

Read the sentences that go with each picture. Put them in order.

- (1) 2 Then Ace runs to get his grandpa.
3 Next Ace shows his grandpa where the fence is down.
1 First Ace sees the fence is down.

- (2) _____ Next Grandpa needs a hammer.
_____ First Grandpa picks up the board.
_____ Then Ace goes to get the hammer.

- (3) _____ First Ace brings the hammer.
_____ Now the cows will not get out.
_____ Then Ace and Grandpa fix the fence.

Underline the right answer.

- (4) The first word of each sentence above tells (when someone did something, how someone did something, who will do something).
