My Goal

- To learn new words.
- To read stories and answer questions.
- To learn about Ace's friends.
- To learn about Ace's church and school.
- To learn to use all I have for God's glory.

Generous

"Give and it shall be given unto you."
Giving shows we are believing.
Luke six, thirty-eight is a promise to elate,
But giving comes before receiving.

Our Monitor, Mrs. Lovejoy

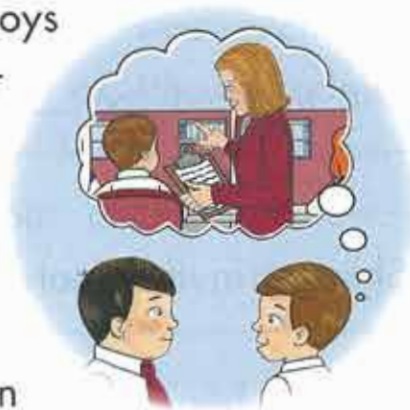

Christi Lovejoy is an old friend, Pudge. Christi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lovejoy, show us much love and joy. See, there is Mrs. Lovejoy going into the school now.

Mrs. Lovejoy is a monitor in our school. Mrs. Lovejoy wanted to help the children in our school. Our school is called Highland School. Mrs. Lovejoy talked to the pastor of Highland Church. The pastor's name is Pastor Alltruth.

Pastor Alltruth prayed and asked what God wanted Mrs. Lovejoy to do in the school. Then the pastor asked Mrs. Lovejoy to be a monitor in our Learning Center.

As a monitor Mrs. Lovejoy helps the boys and girls set goals each day. As a monitor she sometimes listens to the boys and girls read from their PACEs. Mrs. Lovejoy is a very good monitor at Highland School.

Thank You, God, for a sweet monitor like Mrs. Lovejoy to work in our Christian school.

Thank You, God, for Friends

God is so good to give us friends in the school and in the church. Friends always like to help each other.

One night Daddy wanted to rest. All day long Daddy had gone from door to door of homes asking people to ask Jesus into their hearts. At night a man came to talk to my father. He needed my father's help. Daddy left to help the man.

I asked Mamma why Daddy had left when he had wanted to rest. My mother told me why Daddy left. This is why Daddy left. Daddy left because a friend needed him. My father feels it is best to help a friend. My daddy will not rest now.

Why is it that friends come to be friends? I think this must be why. God puts the love in our hearts for our friends. God makes us want to help our friends. A friend is one of the best things God gives us.

Thank You, God, for friends at school and at church. Thank You that You put love in our hearts for our friends.
